

Inaugural Walsh Family Negotiation Competition

March 14, 2015

We are writing you to seek your support for the inaugural Walsh Family Negotiation Competition, an exciting new opportunity to support the teaching of negotiation skills to family law students.

On March 14, 2015, students from law schools across Ontario will meet in Toronto to participate in a family negotiation competition that will be judged by senior members of the profession and members of the bench. These students will join the students demonstrating their litigation skills in the Walsh Family Law Moot.

We invite you to support this ground-breaking event in one of the following categories:

Platinum: $2500
Gold: $1000
Silver: $500
Bronze: $250
Supporter: $100
